

Introducing Dr. Christy Walker

- ◇ Board certified in Obstetrics and Gynecology
- ◇ Fellow of the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology
- ◇ The ONLY gynecologist in North Texas who is also a fellowship trained cosmetic surgeon

Training, Skills and Experience:

- ◇ She received her undergraduate degree in biology with minor in chemistry from the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff. There, she graduated summa cum laude and was a recipient of the Chancellors Medallion, an award given to graduates with the highest grade point average in their academic school. Dr. Walker then went on to receive her Doctorate of Medicine. She completed her residency training at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences.
- ◇ Dr. Walker served as a member of the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences teaching faculty and clinical instructor, and as Medical Director of Walker Healthcare for Women and Santé Bien Medspa. It was this distinction in her field that lead her to pursue additional training with specialists in cosmetic surgery and to become the premier destination for gynecological and cosmetic surgery in North Texas.
- ◇ In December, 2013, Dr. Walker was invited to join one of eighteen cosmetic surgery fellowships in the country with world-renowned plastic surgeon, Dr. Jim English. During her training, she was afforded the opportunity to work with other leaders in the field of cosmetic surgery. During this fellowship, she performed over 1000 procedures including, but not limited to, liposuction, tummy tucks, breast augmentation, and facelifts. She is especially honored to have worked with Dr. Suzanne Yee, Dr. Rhys Branman, leaders in Cosmetic Surgery, and with Dr. Tony Mangubat, world renowned cosmetic surgeon.
- ◇ Because of her experience treating thousands of women over the past decade, she recognizes the sensitive nature and emotional challenges associated with a woman's body and her sense of femininity. Her unique gynecologic surgery skills coupled with her broadened expertise in facial and cosmetic surgery allows her to address the most sensitive and confidential cosmetic and vaginal surgical concerns.

As a woman, Dr. Walker understands the need to Look Good, Feel Great, Be Well—inside and out.
